

There is a doorway to a new dimension.

Asking of Self...

When you feel it

Knock!
Knock!

will you
answer it?

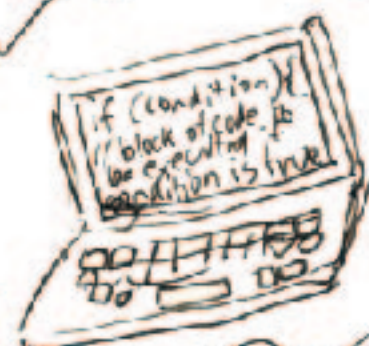

How to find my own way
through this new path

"what's important about this pursuit"

How do I want to explore in a way that will support and nourish the <sup>path of</sup> generative growth I am choosing

logical
intuitive
thoughtful
strategic

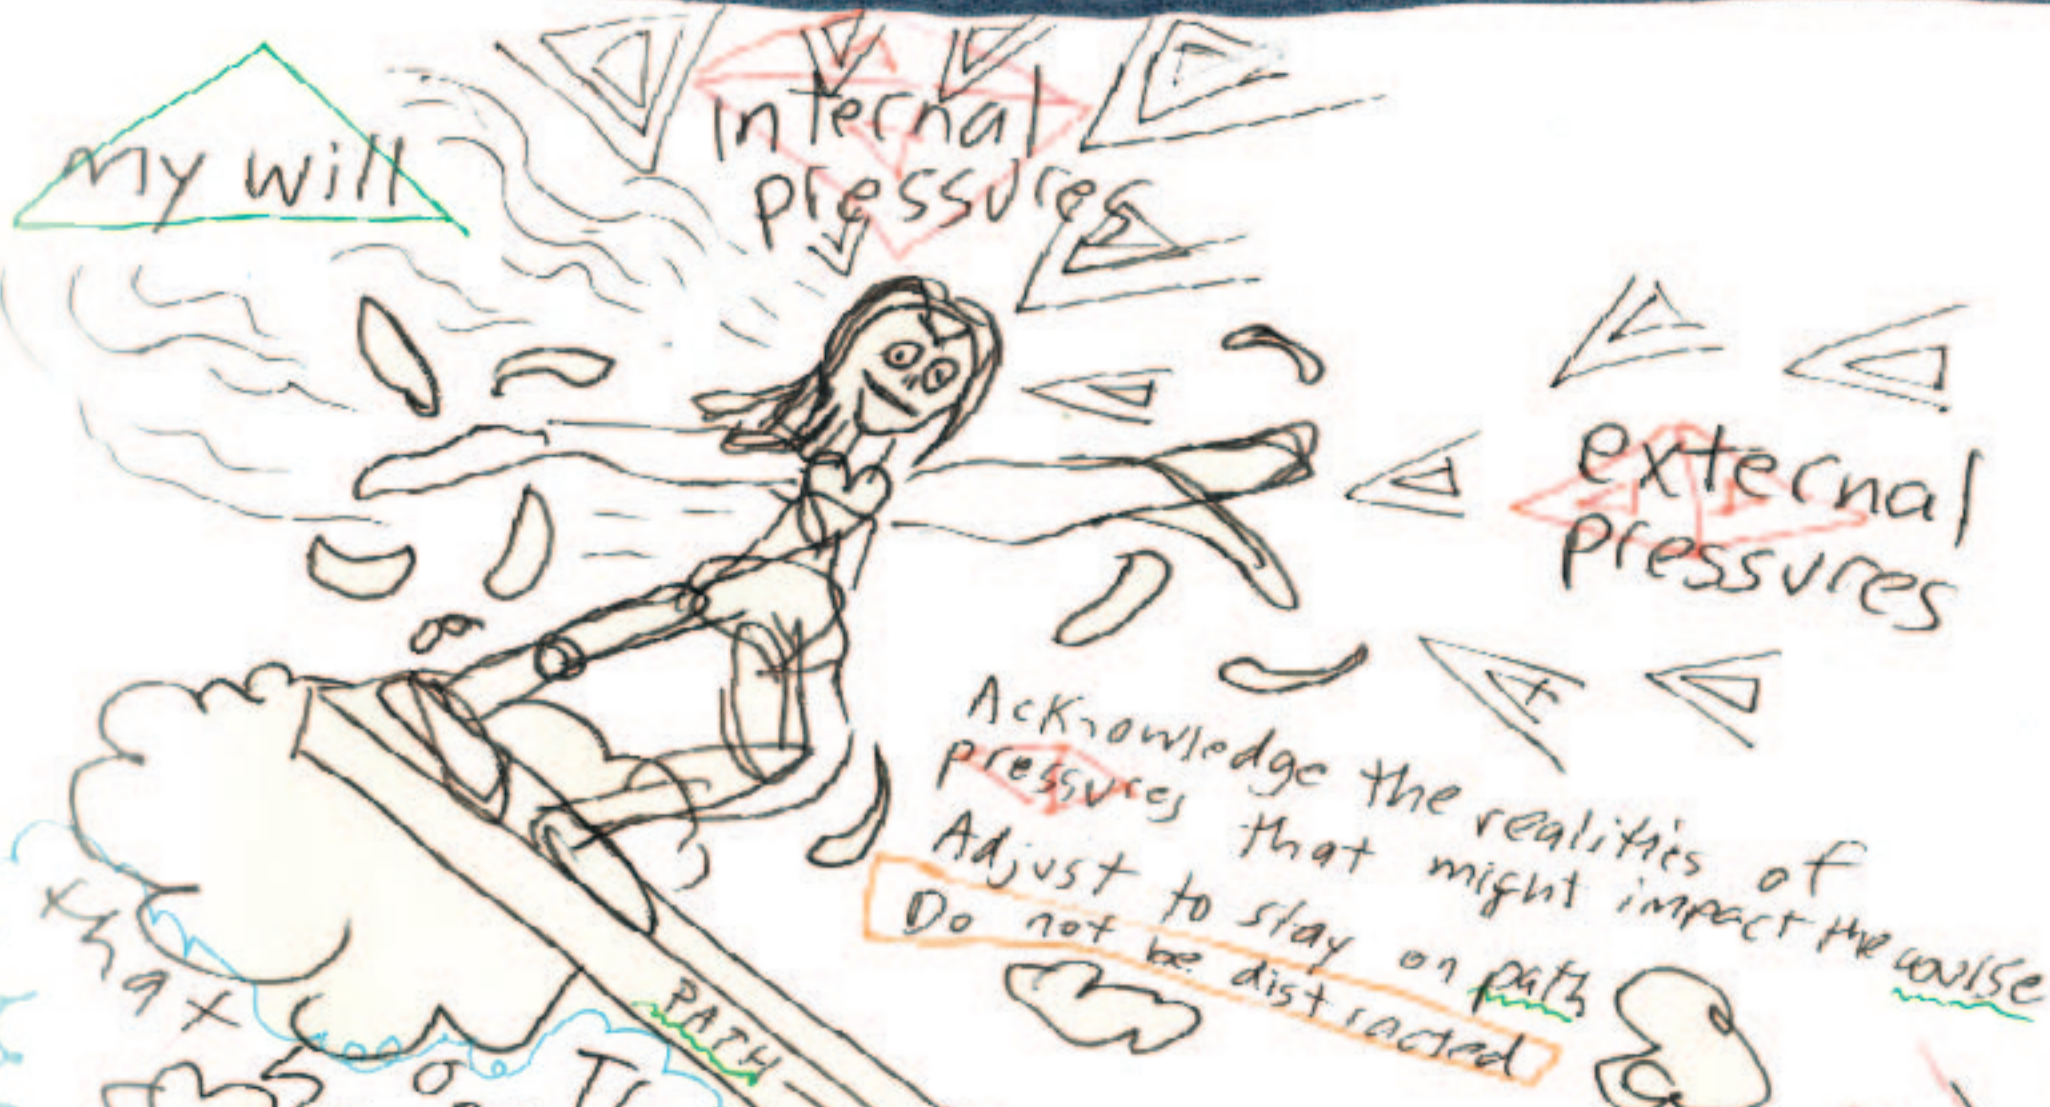

if that than what?

ways of being

// if (condition) {
// block of code to be executed if the // condition is true. }

The force of my own determination has blown my sails across my life adventures. The open water has been dynamic and changing in nature and calls to me the dream closer step. Challenge through trial

Incrementally intuitively position the rudder and let the winds take me

Surf the wave

Use the FORCE

Resist the urge to work
against it.

The more I push and allow myself to the edges of my most functional mania

Use the less I am able to think beyond
what is usefull for the task, my pursuit
against repetition. mantras.

I imprint mental notes
with only the most pertinant, monosyllabic
instructions

Let the cup empty
so there is space
for the next river

" I don't do Things
by halves "

Understand the essence of my flow like a sommelier senses the terroir that nurtured
the grape
vines

" my style or Practice particular approach makes perfect "

There's no saying how long it takes to establish a sense of this. Each new endeavour is a new School that life has
to teach me.

when i get my footing
i'm good to go.

Game and play

That's my quick access thermometer to take the temperature of my pursuit

"How would I know I had that?"
what would the energetic vibe be How would it feel
What would be happening

can feel like ... no risk, no reward dungeon trawling map clearing finding a hidden coin room

"did I search this room?"

Shine light on every dusty corner put my head in every clund understand from within why

I choose what I do

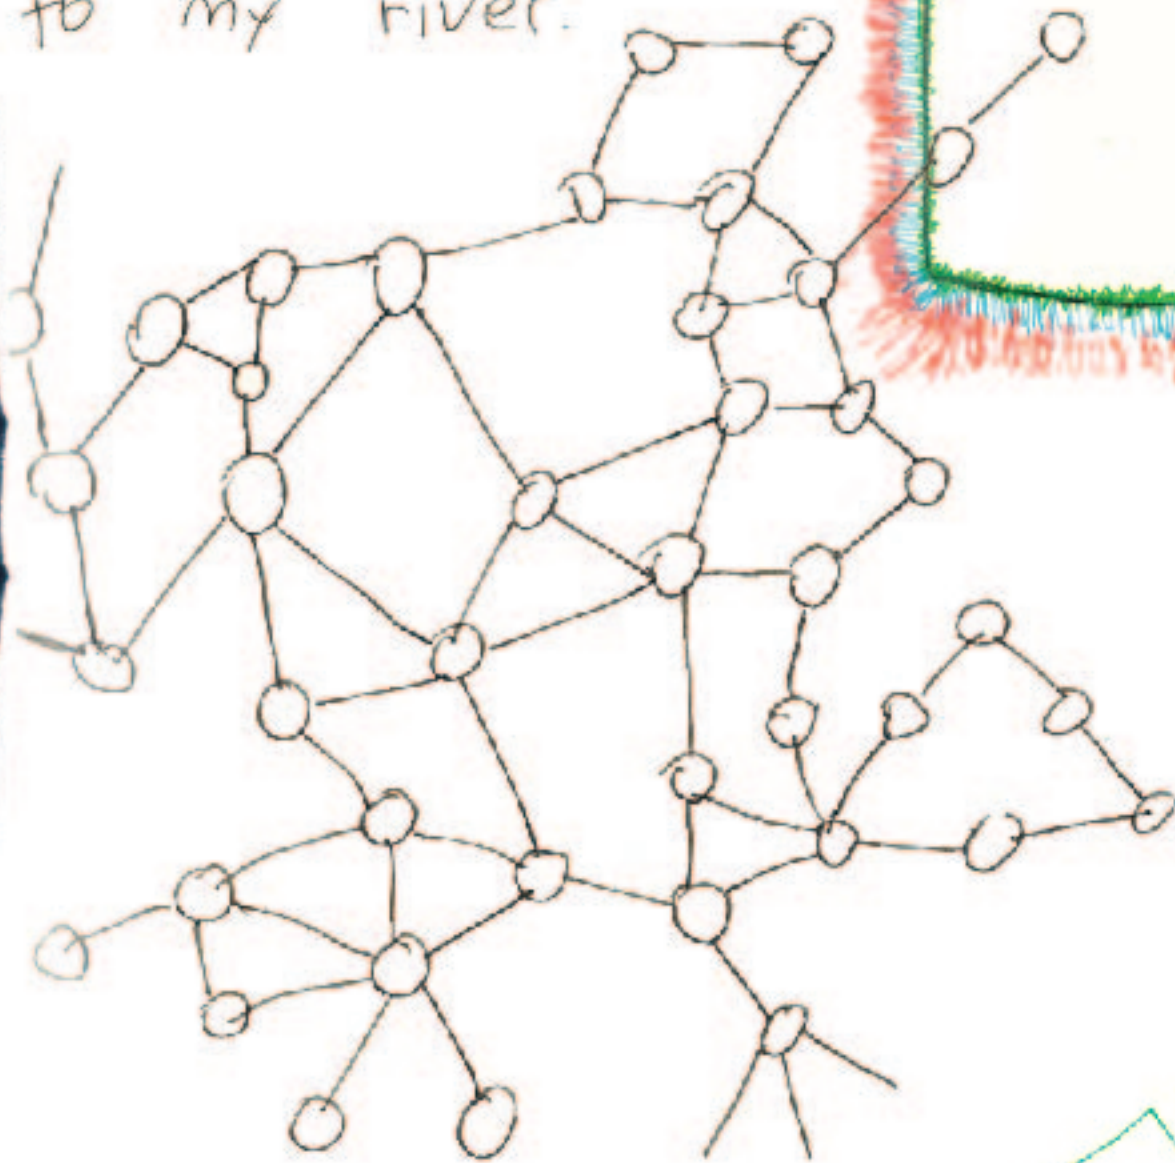

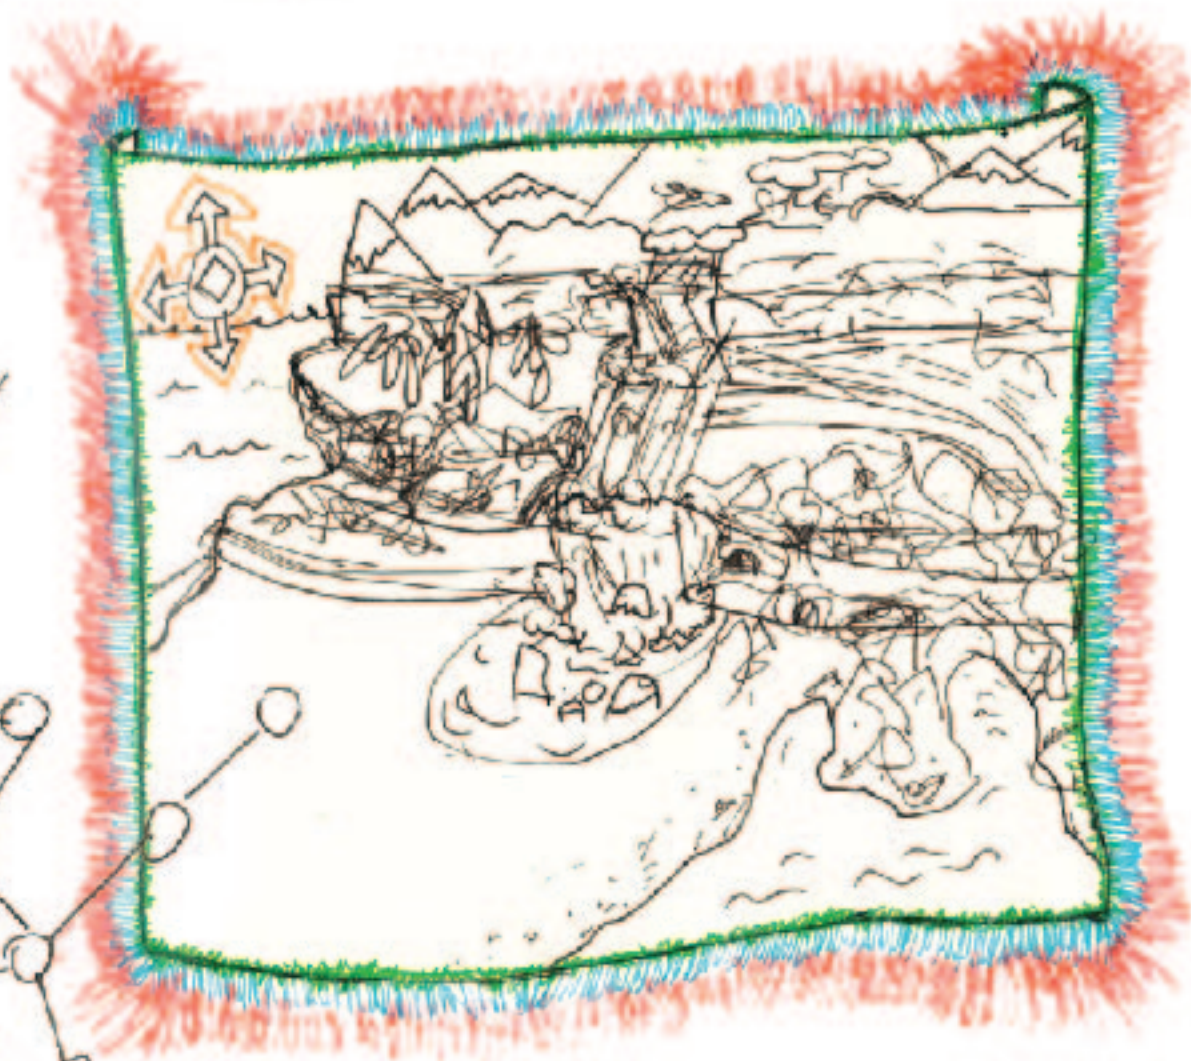

Surf the wave

Discovering the path to my river
reveals when I

Resist the urge to work
against it
Surf the force

I cannot
machete chop
my way through my inner jungle to get to my river.

It's not a location
to plot in a linear
way.

The path feels rhizomatic New directions of growth develop choices are available that lead to places for exploration as the expansion pushes the Edges of the map

Every new path option

→ value. It will take you somewhere. Consider tho... is it where you want Don't be distracted by the weight of having the choice that was being longed for. You got it.

against it.

"Be in Choice"
